From: +minister: Keidrych

c/o: [REDACTED]

State: Queensland

email: [REDACTED]

This day: Friday, August 20th 2021

To: Michaelia Clare Cash, private woman.

c/o General Post-Office Box 6100 Senate Parliament House Canberra.

Australian Capital Territory [2600]

Dear Michaelia-Clare, I hope this letter finds you well.

Michaelia, I am bearing witness to my brother Jeremy-val testimony that you are in agreement that minister Jeremy-Val has the right to practice his faith and travel in peace free from intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination. You acknowledge minister Jeremy-val demand for accommodation for his faith.

Michealia, you have not disputed any of the demands made to you written in the private letter sent to you via attorney@ag.gov.au and senator.cash@aph.gov.au on this day, Friday, August 20th 2021, with an original copy via registered post. RPP44 63800 09400 25600 35603

Based on Article 1 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), minister Jeremy-Val has chosen his rite to self-determination through his faith in Christ.

1. All peoples have the right of self-determination. They freely determine their political status and freely pursue their economic, social, and cultural development by virtue of that right.

Michaelia, you have acknowledged that minister Jeremy-Val can not have respect to persons [in law] and, as per his Article 16 of the ICCPR rite, has waived any and all assumption that he is to be assumed to be a person before the law. Since the definition of a person within your legislation is a dead legal fiction, you have acknowledged that minister Jeremy-Val can no longer be bound to any future contracts, as it violates his faith.

Michaelia, you acknowledge that being coerced into a contract in order for minister Jeremy-val to use his car would be an outright violation of Article 18.2 of the ICCPR.

18.2. No one shall be subject to coercion that would impair his freedom to have or to adopt a religion or belief of his choice.

Michaelia, you also agree, minister Jeremy-Val has the right to liberty of movement lawfully within the territory of a State while performing his duty as Christ's minister.

12.1. Everyone lawfully within the territory of a State shall, within that territory, have the right to liberty of movement and freedom to choose his residence.

Michealia, you acknowledge that minister Jeremy-Val has relinquished ownership of the 2003 Toyota Hilux dual cab chassis 4 x 4, chassis number MR033LLNG907819983 back to his Heavenly Father, the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; and he is now merely a steward of the car, using it for ecclesiastical and ministerial duties.

Michaelia, you have not rejected minister Jeremy-Val demand for accommodation to have the car removed from the New South Wales Registries. Nor have you refused to have any and all Departments updated with your agreement{s}—that his faith is protected, and to be protected—that all necessary internal notices to that assurance—that he may travel in peace.

Michaelia, you have acknowledged and are in full awareness that from this day, [September 4th 2021] minister Jeremy-Vals specific mark will be placed on the car mentioned above for identification, A Red Cross representing his faith in Christ and chosen language/alphabet. Michaelia, you are also in awareness, based on Article 27 of the ICCPR rite, minister Jeremy-Val has the right to choose his own language.

In article 27 of the ICCPR it states;

In those States in which ethnic, religious or linguistic minorities exist, persons belonging to such minorities shall not be denied the right, in community with the other members of their group, to enjoy their own culture, to profess and practise their own religion, or to use their own language.

Michaelia, as a courtesy, should there be a miscommunication, a three-day window upon sending (as your contact details have been validated as correct) is provided whereby you may dispute this witness testimony before "qui tacit consenter videtur" (he who keeps silent is held to consent) applies.

A church notice will be placed in a newspaper containing a link to where your agreement with minister Jeremy-Val can be viewed online at www.matthew525.org to seal your agreement as binding as per Matthew 5:25 and 18:15-20

Michaelia. With love and respect.
